ELECTION OF SPECIES

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: Each functional group, such as sulfate, phosphate, carboxylic acid, secondary amine, and tertiary amine, is considered to be a distinct species.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 1 is considered to be generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35

U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

The specification appears to indicate that there are references which would appear to be essential for a proper examination of the application. They appear to be the footnotes for references 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5. They appear in the specification on page 1, line 9; page 1, line 11; page 1, line 16, page 1, line 20, and page 6, line 41. However, there is no indication of what the references are. It would be appreciated if applicant would indicate what the references are and submit copies of these references with his response to this office action. Such a timely submission would enhance the quality of examination. In addition, if applicant submitted the copies of these references with his response to this office action, no fee would be required.

A telephone call was made to Sidney N. Fox on November 22, 2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Any inquiry concerning this communication should be directed to E. Therkorn at telephone number (571) 272-1149. The official fax number is (703) 872-9306.
